

Today is Paul Tully's Day!

Call Sign Poetry Competition winner and Dial-a-Cab driver Paul Tully (Y40) showed exactly what he had in common with the song Yesterday, all his troubles seemed so far away...

Rice presents Paul Tully champagne for winning the poetry

Today is Paul Tully and

▼ Allan Evans looks on as Paul Tully is captured by future prospective poets

▼ Poet-in-the-City John Moles follows the proceedings

▲ And up they go. National Poetry Day is well and truly launched

▲ George Staple QC (of Clifford Chance) recites a poem on the steps of the Royal Exchange

▲ Poet Laureate Andrew Motion, needed a cab to go home so it had to be DaC. Our driver was Gary Davies (M50) who said he knew nothing poetic other than about the two young ladies from France, who were returning home from a dance! We'll let you know, Gary...